PERSONAL PROFILE

Date of birth: 13/11/2001

A passion for cinema has always been a part of me; I have never imagined a different life. I started out in theater as an actor before shifting my focus to film directing. During university, I realized that spending hours on end working hard on set makes me feel alive, and there is nowhere else I would rather be.

INTERESTS AND HOBBIES

I am passionate about cinema and a huge fan of Mixed Martial Arts—a sport I also practice. I enjoy discovering new music, particularly rap, and I read comic books to study their storytelling and aesthetics, which I then incorporate into my own projects. I am drawn to graphic design of all kinds—especially title cards for films and TV series—and I love experimenting in the kitchen, as I believe creativity is important in every field.
