

To whom it may concern,

I would be very pleased to be considered as a candidate for this position.

I am a young Italian costume designer, I am 27 years old, shortly after getting my high school diploma I moved to London where I had the opportunity to live and work for almost 3 years. During this time I had the chance to meet new people and discover new realities, that's when and where I realized I wanted to get back in school and get my degree, so I quit my job, pack my bags and came back home where I have a supportive family that welcomed me back with open arms. And now, after five years and two degrees is time to pack my bags again and challenge myself.

I'm creative and open minded, I learn very fast and I'm able to suit in every kind of situation. I am confident and I have the right skills to contribute and succeed, this opportunity will provide me the possibility to step ahead in my career and fulfill my ambition to expand my knowledge.

I'm a very curious person, I'm always available to try new experiences and I'm very passionate.

I love art, food, travel and discover new facts, I like reading and take planes. I can be considered a funny person but I take very seriously my job.

I don't like dishonesty and people that take advantage.

I consider myself a feminist and I'm always ready to fight for what I believe.

My English is very good thanks to my years abroad, and I would have no difficulty with communication if I should be successfully considered by you.

I would be very happy to be able to further my career in a new and stimulating environment and in an innovative and exciting experience like this.

Please do not hesitate to contact me for further information you may need. I take this opportunity to send you my best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Federica Chiesa.
