Biography

Dis Film SRL was founded in 1987 as a film production and distribution company. Over the years it has been regional agent for several majors including Walt Disney, Warner Bros, 20th Century Fox, as well as co-producer of several films between the 80s and 90s.

Since 2005 it has been managed by Sauro Baraldi.

In 2014, Dis Film S.r.l. developed a business branch called Black Mamba S.r.l., which is in charge of the management of two cinemas in the city of Bologna: Cinema Medica and Cinema Jolly.

Since 2018, Black Mamba sees the participation of TCB S.r.l. a company owned by Andrea Romeo with a view to developing a city circuit of mono-screen cinemas called Pop Up Cinemas

It is a partner agency of Giglio Film, a distribution company in Florence administered by Matteo Nenciolini, with the aim of developing a regional circuit between Emilia Romagna and Tuscany.

It continues to distribute films for some majors including Walt Disney, Warner Bros, Universal, for smaller companies such as Coach Media and many others.

Since 2016 it has been managed by Enrico Baraldi, a theatre and documentary director.

In 2022 the production activity starts again with the documentary Dear Audience.
