

Pasquale Marino - director, writer, producer,

Pasquale Marino was born in Messina, in 1981. He studied film direction at Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia. He wrote and directed several short films, short doc and fashion films. His short Till summer comes, produced by the CSC with RAI Cinema was selected at the 64th Cannes film festival in the Cinéfondation section. With the script of the feature film Portorosa he got the residence program of Cannes film festival in order to develop in Paris the final version of the screenplay. In 2013 he won the development found Ancine- Mibac for a Brasil-Italy coproduction with the project Alguma coisa permanece with a script written by Alessandro Aniballi and Giordano De Luca. In 2017 he directed and produced Imma, a doc presented at Vision du reel, Cinemed Montpellier, and many others festivals. Between 2018 and 2020 He produced and directed several fashion video for the brand Marco De Vincenzo, and Vogue.it