

Francesco Mussoni

BIO

Born in Rimini on 1974, Francesco Mussoni starts to compose his first songs together with Marco Giorgi, an author known for his collaboration with Mariadele, Saverio Grandi and others. He makes his discographic debut in 2019 with the single La normalità, included immediately nell'extended play FIATO.

In the same year he released two more singles: Spazio libero e La corrente delle cose ultime. The activity continues in 2020 with Il giardino di limoni and Ti vedrò crescere, made in trio with Davide Mascanzoni and Davide Pagnini. Mussoni's latest record release is Quello che abbiamo, single released in December 2023 which anticipates his debut album, Tradimenti out June 7th via TSCK Records.

The album boasts the collaboration of the musician, composer and arranger Federico Mecozzi and also the violinist Elisa Semprini and the singer-songwriter Enrico Farnedi (the "Rico Romano" of "Goodfellas").
