Francesco Meatta, born in 1995, will graduate in 2022 from the Florestano Vancini School of Cinematographic Art. His short "Gagio" (2023) was chosen by Son Of a Pitch Distribution, winning free distribution of the work.

Currently in distribution, the film reached the finals at various festivals including Cefalù, MediterraneoFF, Senigallia, Mompeo and won best film at the AQUA Film Fest in Rome. The president of the Jury Mimmo Calopresti awards the prize: "For a mature direction and effective interpretation in telling a dream not far from everyday life. A dream that with courage and determination becomes reality, not only at the cinema, but in everyday life." He is currently working on the documentary "Spillo" on the occasion of the 150th Persicetano Historical Carnival, winner of the Magale Doc International 2023 post-production award.
