Professional Summary

I am Giacomo Ragagni, born on 13/03/1998 in Phu-Tho (Vietnam) and currently living in Bologna, Italy.

I'm a filmmaker: director, writer, dp and editor. My professional training is self-taught, supplemented by workshops and training courses.

I work as a freelance filmmaker, serving as a director, screenwriter, director of photography, and editor, as well as a photographer. I have experience working on feature films, advertising commercials, music videos, documentaries, television programs, events, social media ads, and short films.

About some of my works:

I served as the 1st AC for the film "Bianca e Le Bufale" (Gino Riviaccio, 2024), produced by Antracine Film Industry and Real Dreams Ent, distributed by Amazon Prime Video.

I have worked on filming promotional and commercial videos for movies and TV series produced by Walt Disney Pictures, Disney+, Universal Pictures, Warner Bros. Discovery, Blumhouse Pictures, Illumination, and Searchlight Pictures.

I created advertising video commercials for the Michelin-starred restaurant Ristorante Corbezzoli. I filmed a commercial and two ads videos for the 4-star hotel Relais Bellaria Hotel. I wrote, directed, and post-produced the music video for the song "Vieni Qui" by the band Le Frequenze Di Tesla. I shot the video for the gala event of the multinational company Gruppo E80. I worked as director, writer, dp and editor of the automotive commercial for Giroveloce in collaboration with Ferrari and Lamborghini. I worked as a director of dp, cameraman, and editor for the Rai (international italian television channel) documentary "La Memoria Del Ghetto" directed by Anna Tini, as well as for Rai Tv News. Additionally, I wrote, directed, edited, and handled the cinematography for a segment of the documentary "Youth For Better Cities," produced by Save The Cut and the Pon Metro (European Project).

I have knowledge of professional video equipment (cameras, lenses, lights, rigs) and the ability to set up and dismantle sets. I possess skills in video and audio editing programs, photo retouching, and professional-level sound recording/editing. I have experience on sets and filming events. I have expertise in creating audiovisual content for artistic, creative, and commercial purposes. I also have experience in producing audiovisual products with a focus on social media positioning. In the musical/sound domain, I am skilled in studying musical instruments and recording through DAW (Digital Audio Workstation). I have experience in deadline-driven work, high-stress situations, productive coordination, and leadership.
