

Davide Caprelli is an Italian award winning music composer.

He writes music for the main Italian television network (RAI), for documentaries, film and listening. He recently nominated at Hollywood Music in Media Awards for the main theme of the Italian Tv Show GEO (Rai3),

For the soundtrack of the film "EST" (2020), produced by Genoma Films and directed by Antonio Pisu he recently won (sept 2021) the Paris Art and Movie Awards Best Score/Best Composer for choice of John Lunn (Downton Abbey, The Last Kingdom) for the same soundtrack he also won: Paris Play Film Festival-Best Score, Barcelona Planet Film Festival-Best Soundtrack, InterContinental Music Awards-Best Pangea Award, Global Music Awards-Best Original Score.

For the soundtrack of the film "Rwanda" (2019), produced by Horizon Studio and directed by Riccardo Salvetti he won 12 international awards including: Julien Dubuque International Film festival-Best Use of Music Award; Mindfield Film Festival-Best Original Score; New York Film Awards-Best Score; European Cinematography Awards-Best Original Score; Barcelona Planet Film Festival-Best Soundtrack; Los Angeles Film Awards-Best Original Score; Calcutta International Cult Film Festival-Best Film Score. For other musical projects he won 7 Global Music Awards.

Among his recently musical works: the soundtrack of the five series Wild Italy (Rai5), the soundtrack for the 12 DVD series "Ayrton Indimenticabile", the original music for the TV broadcasts "Chi l'ha Visto" and "GEO" (Rai3), the soundtrack of the film "Il Muro" by Riccardo Salvetti, the short movie "I Sogni Sospesi-Unfinished Dreams" directed by Manuela Tempesta.