

Profile

I have a Master's degree with honors in Theoretical Linguistics, Applied Linguistics, and Modern Languages (English and Russian) from the University of Pavia. I have always worked in the world of theater and cinema as an actress, screenwriter, and facilitator of theater workshops. In 2017, I co-founded the theater company "Cuori di Maschera" and the association APS Kalamos. I still collaborate with the latter and have staged numerous original shows, as well as original monologues in variety shows. Among them is an aesthetic study on the text by Giorgio Maria Timpano. I have acted in several short films and movies, including the recent one by Brando Improta released on Chili. Recently, I have taken on the role of presenter for Luca Guardabascio's show.
