WORK EXPERIENCE

COMPANY MANAGER AND MARKETING MANAGER

Campana Onorio srl - Automotive field

January 2019 - Present

- Business manager, marketing manager, brand ambassador, client and major project manager.
- In 2022, I managed the collaboration with US and Italian production companies for the creation of the stunt cars for Michael Mann's film "Ferrari". The project involved: construction of high-performance stunt vehicles, rental of set furniture and equipment and on-set assistance during filming.
- My role included: managing work schedules to ensure timely delivery of the vehicles, overseeing company employees and suppliers, handling requests from the director and other key production figures, and monitoring cash flow, budget and logistic of the project.
- After the project was completed, I took part in TV and online interviews, including Behind the scenes with Michael Mann, Vanity Fair, Variety, Hollywood Reporter and others, to explain the construction process.
