

After having produced as independent Jali Road and Buracos - the first two documentaries by Matteo Ferrarini - Matteo Pecorara founded Small Boss in 2014, for which he manages fundraising and public relations with commissioning editors. His responsibility is also to accompanying the projects through the current market realities as well as the expectations of Small Boss' partners. The Small Boss, based in Parma, has already created and produced documentaries that have been selected in several international festivals and broadcasted by major international broadcasters such as RAI, SVT, Al Jazeera, GloboTv, HRT, 2M, France Télévision, RTBF, BBC.

Filmography

in production	"The land you belong" Director: Elena Rebeca Carini Documentary Feature with the support of Eurimages and Regione Emilia-Romagna in production	"My next photograph in the Congo" Director: Stefano Cattini Documentary Feature in production	"Il complotto di Tirana" Director: Manfredi Lucibello Documentary Feature in production	"Oto" Director: Elisa Motta Documentary Feature in development	"The tree of ears" Animation Feature with the support of Creative Europe and Ibermedia in development	"Il tesoro del Bigatto" Director: Francesco Vecchi Animation Feature 2021	"Ethbet!" Director: Matteo Ferrarini Documentary Feature

2019	"Strange Fish" Director: Giulia Bertoluzzi Documentary Feature
2018	"The last cathedral" Director: Matteo Ferrarini Documentary feature
2017	"Far right" Director: Eleonora Vio, Costanza Spocci Documentary feature
2015	"Nar per fer" Director: Matteo Ferrarini Documentary feature
2013	"Buracos" Director: Matteo Ferrarini Documentary feature
2011	"Jali road" Director: Matteo Ferrarini Documentary short