Milan, Italy

Born in Albania in 1995, currently living between Milan and Rimini. I work as a screenwriter and author of videos, dramaturgy, video games, podcasts and as a storytelling tutor.

The play Scarlatto come la neve written under the supervision of Marco Amerighi has been included in the virtual library of the Teatro I of Milan.

In 2023 I was selected by Fondazione Fare Cinema for the screenwriting course under the guidance of Bruno Oliviero and Valia Santella. The short film L'ultimo giorno dell'orso co-written with Laura Raccanelli during the course, is the winner of the VII edition of the International Residency of Cinema Castello Errante and is now in post-production.
