

Piera Fiorito - Personal resume

Piera Fiorito was born in Rovereto (Tn) in 1977. She graduated in Modern Literature in 2001. She works in the cultural sphere: she writes projects for libraries and literary festivals. In 2019 and 2020 she attended the basic course and the advanced screenwriting course at Bottega Finzioni in Bologna. Since May 2021 she has joined the Bottega Studio group of authors. In 2021 with the subject for feature film: I am nobody, she is selected among the finalists of the 2021 edition of the Detour Pitch linked to the Detour Film Festival. In June 2021 with the series subject La laguna dei pezzenti, she is selected among the finalist projects of Writers Guild Italia Netpich. In March 2022 her first book was released: "Guide to the palaces of Trento, a romantic journey among the historic buildings of the city", published by the roman publisher Edizioni della Sera. In October 2022 she followed, as assistant director, the filming of the teaser of the documentary "The man who lived twice" on Gino Pellegrini, developed by Bottega Finzioni Produzioni.

In June 2023 with the subject Where the wind blows he won the "Best original Fictional Story Idea" award at the Fiction Factory of the Bio To B Industry Days of the Biografilm Film Festival.