

IMPERIO SALVATORE

Hi my name is Salvatore Imperio, born in 1979 in a city of Puglia, growing up I felt the need to leave school to become a hairstylist attending a regional academy first, approaching first to the world of barber shop, and after the female one, my educational career was a crescendo and evolve in incredible working situations, from being able to work with companies of a certain thickness such as the earl, Revlon professional, Sinergy cosmetics, Framesi, Paul Mitchell, who gave me the opportunity to work and train in England at the Tony&guy school, my specialization and always evolving because I like to collaborate with various companies in my sector, to date I carry out more contemporary activities, from the management of salon, teaching for companies in the hairstyle sector, backstage service in the fashion world with many designers, hairstylist service in cinema. In the future, I still expect many collaborations to increase my training baggage and offer more and more a great collaboration service for companies that need me.
